Court reporters may be used in non-felony proceedings, but they must be obtained by, and at the expense of, one or more of the parties.

b. Civil Proceedings:

When the services of an official court reporter are not available for a hearing or trial in a civil case, a party may arrange for the presence of a certified shorthand reporter to serve as an official pro tempore reporter. It will be that party's responsibility to pay the reporter's fee for attendance at the proceedings, but the expense may be recoverable as part of the costs, as provided by law. (See Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.956(c).)

3. Court Reporting Services Requested by Parties for Civil Trial:

A party in any type of civil case must file a statement prior to the Case Management Conference date indicating whether the party requests the presence of an official court reporter. After receipt of a written request, if it appears to the court the services of an official reporter will not be available, the clerk will notify the party of that fact as soon as possible before the trial or hearing. The party will then need to make arrangements for the presence of an official pro tempore reporter.

Merced Superior Court

Parties should be aware if multiple trials are set forth on the same trial call calendar and your case is assigned to another courtroom in which a court reporter is not regularly assigned, it will be the party's responsibility to arrange for an official pro tempore reporter. In the event the civil trial that is assigned to a courtroom that does not regularly staff a court reporter and both sides waive reporting services, but the reporting services are deemed necessary by the Court, all parties will be ordered to share the cost in arranging for an official pro tempore reporter. The expense may be recoverable as part of the costs, as provided by law. (Rule 2.956(c), Cal. Rules of Court.)

If a party arranges for the attendance of an official pro tempore reporter at a civil trial because of the unavailability of the services of an official court reporter, it is recommended that if one reporter is designated, that they guarantee their availability to cover the entire trial so there is no delay or interruption of proceedings, or a delay in read back to the jury, if requested. The official pro tempore reporter is to comply with statutes and rules applicable, including the duty to timely prepare transcripts, and the form of the appellate record. (See, e.g., Code of Civil Proc., §269, et seq.; Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.130, 8.144.) (Eff. 1/1/16; Rev. 7/1/16; Renum. 1/1/17; Rev. & Renum. 7/1/17; Renum. 7/1/18)

4. Court Reporter Service Fees:

In accordance with Government Code §68086, the Court collects a $30 fee for every non-criminal proceeding lasting one hour or less for which court reporter services are provided. The $30 fee shall be paid by the party that filed the paper that resulted in the proceeding being scheduled. If the $30 fee is required for a proceeding as provided herein, that proceeding may be delayed if the $30 payment is delayed and may not go forward if the fee remains unpaid. For a single case with multiple proceedings to take place in the same hour on the same day, one fee is collected per four proceedings.

Fees will also be charged for the use of regular reporters in the above-mentioned civil calendars as follows: Half day (more than one hour and less than four hours): $225.00; Full day (four hours or more): $450.00. Checks for such services should be made payable to the Merced Superior Court and paid for at the Clerks' Office each day, unless otherwise informed, prior to commencement of proceedings.

These fees are separate from Court Reporter Service Fees, Government Code §68086.

Merced Superior Court

If there are insufficient staff court reporters to report civil trials that are requesting daily transcripts, a party may arrange for the presence of a certified shorthand reporter at their own expense pursuant to CRC 2.956. Parties should check with the Court Calendar Manager regarding the availability of a staff court reporter. Check the court website for contact information. (Eff. 1/1/16; Renum. 1/1/17; Rev. & Renum. 7/1/17; Renum. 7/1/18, 1/1/23)

6. Court Reporting Services for Family Law:

Official Court Reporters will not be provided by the Court in Family Law matters. In the event an official court reporter is provided by the court, this Court determines Family Law proceedings to be governed by Government Code section 68086(a)(1)(A). For each proceeding lasting less than one hour, a fee of $30.00 shall be charged for the reasonable cost of the services of an official court reporter. The fee must be paid at the time of filing.

If the matter is continued for any reason, before the case is called, the fee continues over to the next hearing. If the matter is continued, for any reason, after the case is called, the party requesting the continuance must pay a new and separate fee for the next hearing and submit proof of payment before the next hearing. If a hearing is taken off calendar before the case is called, the fee will be refunded. Claiming a refund is solely the responsibility of the party.

A party litigant seeking a waiver of this fee should file an appropriate request for waiver of court fees and costs, which shall be ruled on timely by the Judge or Commissioner presiding over the action. However, Court Reporter transcript fees are not to be waived under any circumstances.

In Government Code Section 68086, the aforesaid section contains the language regarding fees for cases lasting more than one hour. Accordingly, it shall be the new stated policy of this Court, regarding this additional court reporter fees, as follows:

If the party litigants seek to set a long-cause hearing, trial, or other proceeding which exceeds one hour, but that will last no more than one-half day, the party litigants will be charged a fee for court reporter services in the amount of $225.00. If the hearing exceeds four hours or more, the fee for court reporter services is $450.00, full day. Checks for such services should be made payable to the Merced Superior Court and paid for at the Clerks' Office, unless otherwise informed, prior to commencement of proceedings.

If the fee for one-half day of court reporter services is paid and the long-cause hearing, trial, or other proceeding is completed in less than one hour, the party litigants can seek a refund similar to those remitted when long cause actions are resolved or are completed in less than one day. The judicial officer has the discretion to grant or deny this request for refund.

Additionally, the parties shall be responsible for all transcript costs pursuant to California Government Code section 69953. (Eff. 7/1/19, 1/23/23)

RULE 2.4: DOMESTIC VIOLENCE PROTOCOL

This rule is adopted in conformity with Penal Code 136.2 and California Rule of Court 5.445. (Eff. 1/1/09; Renum. 7/1/18)

A. Definitions

For purposes of this rule:

- 1. “Criminal Court protective order” means any Court order issued under California Penal Code § 136.2 arising from a complaint, information, or an indictment charging a crime of domestic violence as defined in California Penal Code § 13700.

2. “Court” means all divisions of the Superior Court of the County of Merced.
3. “Cases involving child custody and visitation” include family (dissolutions, legal separations, nullities, Domestic Violence Prevention Act, parentage, petition for custody and support, Title IV-D child support matters where custody or visitation is an issue, and any other Family Law matters related to custody or visitation is an issue and any other Family Law matters related to custody or visitation), juvenile and probate guardianship proceedings.
4. All references in the Protocol to Family Court include any division of the Superior Court, hearing matters involving child custody and visitation, including Juvenile Court and Probate Court.
5. “CLETS Civil Restraining Orders” include personal conduct, residence exclusion, stay away, and other orders issued under the Domestic Violence Prevention Act in the Family Code or Section 213.5 of the Welfare & Institutions Code.

(Eff. 1/1/09; Renum. 7/1/18)

B. Purpose

This protocol is intended to set forth the procedures for communication between the Courts about the issuance of Criminal Court protective orders and Civil restraining orders including those orders involving child custody and visitation, where the same restrained person and protected person are involved in both orders. It is important to permit appropriate visitation between a Criminal defendant and their children pursuant to Civil Court orders, but at the same time provide for the safety of the victim or witness by ensuring that a Criminal Court protective order is not violated. Since there are large numbers of cases in the Criminal Courts that have related matters in the Family, Juvenile, and/or Probate Courts, it is vital that there be a process for communication between the divisions of the Court dealing with the same parties and families, and a process for the modification of orders to ensure consistency between various Court protective orders. (Eff. 1/1/09; Renum. 7/1/18; Rev. 7/1/21)

C. Procedure in the Criminal Domestic Violence Court

1. Where the Restrained and Protected Persons have Children Together

When the Criminal Court issues Criminal Protective Orders protecting Victim(s), the Criminal Court shall inquire of the defendant (restrained person) whether there are any children of the relationship between the defendant and the victim (protected person), and whether there are any Court orders for custody/visitation of those children. If there are children, the Criminal Court shall consider whether peaceful contact should be allowed for purposes of visitation of the defendant with the children. The Criminal Court shall also inquire as to whether there are any other protective/restraining orders involving the defendant and the victim. Subject to available resources, including the Court’s Domestic

Merced Superior Court

Violence Program, the Court shall examine available data bases for existing protective or restraining orders, before issuing permanent orders. (Eff. 1/1/09; Renum. 7/1/18)

2. When the Protected Persons Include Minor Children of the Restrained Person

When the Criminal Court issues “No Contact” and/or “Stay Away” orders from the minor children of the defendant, the Criminal Court shall notify the defendant of their rights to seek a modification, and of the necessity of returning to the Criminal Court to modify the Criminal Court protective order. (Eff. 1/1/09; Renum. 7/1/18; Rev. 7/1/14, 7/1/21)

3. When the Victim is Present in the Criminal Court

If the victim is present in Criminal Court when the Criminal Protective Order is issued, the Court shall provide the victim with a copy of the Criminal Protective Order. If the victim is not present in Court, the Court will provide a copy to the District Attorney. The District Attorney shall send a copy to the victim at their last known address. (Eff. 1/1/09; Rev. 1/1/13; Renum. 7/1/18)

4. Modification of Criminal Protective Orders in Criminal Court

Because Criminal protective orders supersede Civil protective orders, to the extent they are inconsistent, it is important that the modification process be easily accessible. Merced Superior Court has created local form MSC-CR-030 Request for Hearing on Protective Order Modification for this purpose. The form is available at www.merced.courts.ca.gov.

- a. The District Attorney’s Office may, at any time, place the issue before the Court at the request of a protected person or the Family, Juvenile, or Probate Court.
- b. The Probation Department may place the issue before the Court at the request of a defendant, protected person, or the Family, Juvenile, or Probate Court.
- c. The defendant or their counsel may place the issue before the Court.
- d. The protected person or attorney for the protected person may request a hearing for modification of a protective order.
- e. The Family Law judicial officer may recommend a modification by directing an attorney or party to complete the request form, attach a copy of a Minute Order reflecting the judicial officer’s recommendation, and file the request with the Criminal Court.
- f. Upon a proper request pursuant to this protocol, the Court may place the matter on calendar. The Court, in its discretion, may prepare a Standing Order for this purpose.
- g. Copies of any applicable CLETS Civil restraining orders and custody and visitation orders shall be attached to the Request for Hearing on Protective Order Modification. The request shall have the case numbers of the Criminal Court case as well as any Family, Juvenile, or Probate cases involving the defendant and the protected person on it. Copies of the request shall be placed in all applicable Court files. The requesting party will be responsible for service on all appropriate parties and agencies, including the District Attorney's Office, the Probation Department (if the defendant is on formal probation), defense counsel, the defendant, and/or the protected person at least five (5) days before the hearing. If the requesting party is not the protected person, the District Attorney's office shall send a copy of the request to the protected person at their last known address. The Sheriff's Office shall include service of these documents with their current process for Civil restraining order service.

(Eff. 1/1/09; 1/1/16; Renum. 7/1/18; Rev. 1/1/13, 7/1/21)

D. Procedure After the Criminal Court Hearing on Modification

After the hearing on Modification of the Protective Order, the Criminal Court shall send a copy of the modified protective order or order denying request to modify Criminal protective order (or Minute Order) to the applicable Family, Juvenile, and/or Probate Court for inclusion in its files. If the requesting party is not the protected person, the District Attorney shall send a copy of the modified Criminal Protective Order, or the order denying the request to modify Criminal protective order (or Minute Order) to the protected person at their last known address. (Eff. 1/1/09; Renum. 7/1/18; Rev. 7/1/21)

E. Procedure in Family, Juvenile, and Probate Courts

1. Criminal Record Information to Be Made Available to the Civil Courts

Subject to available resources, the Family, Juvenile, and Probate Courts or their designee(s) shall review court records for existing restraining/protective orders involving the same restrained and protected parties before issuing permanent CLETS Civil Restraining Orders. (Eff. 1/1/09; Renum. 7/1/18)

2. Provisions for Safe Access to Children

Any order of the Family, Juvenile, or Probate Court that permits contact between a restrained person subject to CLETS restraining orders and their children shall contain specific language setting forth the schedule for such contact and the safe exchange of the children. Such an order shall not contain language that conflicts with a Criminal Protective Order that provides for no contact with, or limits access to, the other parent. (Eff. 1/1/09; Renum. 7/1/18; Rev. 7/1/21)

F. Communication Between the Courts and Related Agencies

1. Subject to available resources, any Court issuing protective/restraining orders must make reasonable inquiries to determine the existence of other protective/restraining orders involving children of the protected and restrained parties.

2. Any division of the Superior Court may provide copies of Criminal Protective Orders, CLETS Civil Restraining Orders, Court Minutes, and applicable custody and visitation orders to other divisions of the Court.

A settlement conference is required in all civil trial matters. The time, date and place of the mandatory settlement conference will be set at the Case Management

Merced Superior Court

Conference and included in the Case Management Conference Order. At the request of any party or on the Court's own motion, the Court may set a settlement conference in addition to the mandatory conference.

Mandatory Settlement Conferences are court proceedings, whether conducted in person or by video, and may not be photographed and/or recorded except by court order as permitted by California Rules of Court, rule 1.150(e) and Local Rule 2.1, sub-division B. (Eff. 7/1/04; Renum. 7/1/18; Rev. 7/1/23)

B. Persons Attending

Trial counsel, parties, and persons with full authority to settle the case must personally attend the conference, unless excused by the Court for good cause shown. If any consent to settle is required for any reason, the party with that authority must be personally present at the conference. The Court may impose sanctions in the event of an unexcused absence of principal or insurer.

Where the consent of a spouse, business partner, or other person is necessary to achieve settlement, counsel shall, prior to the date set for the settlement conference, obtain the attendance of that person, even if not a party to the litigation. Further, in any case that requires the consent of an insurance carrier or company representative to settle, an employee of the insurer or company representative with full settlement authority shall be personally present. A representative retained solely for the purpose of attending the settlement conference will not be acceptable. If, however, the insurance carrier has no claims offices within California and the Court has been notified, the personal attendance of a representative of the insurer shall not be required, but a representative of the insurer shall be required to be immediately available by telephone until released by the Court, regardless of the time zone.

Experience has demonstrated the importance and necessity of the presence of all persons whose consent will be required for binding settlement agreement. Therefore, only extraordinary circumstances will excuse the non-appearance at the conference of the principals and authorized representative of the insurer. (Eff. 7/1/04; Rev. 7/1/14; Renum. 7/1/18)

C. Each Party to Be Prepared

At the conference each plaintiff or party seeking affirmative relief or recovery shall be prepared to make their minimum request, and each defendant shall be prepared to make their highest offer.

In each case, counsel who attends the conference shall be thoroughly familiar with the case and shall be prepared to discuss it. (Eff. 7/1/04; Renum. 7/1/18; Rev. 1/1/13, 7/1/21)

Merced Superior Court

D. Mandatory Settlement Conference Statements

It is mandatory that all parties or counsel shall, at least five (5) court days prior to the scheduled hearing, file with the Clerk of the Superior Court and serve on each party, a mandatory settlement conference statement on Local Form MSC-CV-051 containing the following:

1. The names of all parties, including interveners and their representatives;
2. A detailed discussion of all facts and law pertinent to the issues of liability and damages involved in the case;
3. A good faith settlement demand and an itemization of economic and non-economic damages by each plaintiff;
4. A good faith offer of settlement by each defendant.

Failure to file a Settlement Statement timely may result in the imposition of monetary sanctions in the amount of $100.00 pursuant to California Rule of Court, rule 2.30. (Eff. 7/1/04; Renum. 7/1/18; Rev. 7/1/23)

E. Participation in Good Faith

For a meaningful conference, all attorneys and/or the parties must agree to participate in good faith. Any failure of an attorney to prepare for, appear at, and participate in a settlement conference, unless good cause is shown for any such failure, may be considered as an unlawful interference with the proceedings of the Court. (Eff. 7/1/04; Renum. 7/1/18)

F. Failure to Appear

If at the time of the scheduled settlement conference, plaintiff or those parties seeking affirmative relief fail to appear, the Court may order the trial date vacated and/or impose monetary sanctions. Written notice thereof will be mailed to all parties, or their counsel of record as ordered by the Court. If the defendant or other responsible party fails to appear at the settlement conference and good cause is not shown, the Court may impose sanctions by way of costs, actual expenses, and counsel fees and order the case to proceed to trial on the date assigned. (Eff. 7/1/04; Renum. 7/1/18)

G. Failure of Settlement Conference

In the event settlement negotiations are not successful, counsel should expect and be prepared to proceed to trial on the date scheduled. Every effort will be made by the Court to ensure that the case goes to trial on the date scheduled. (Eff. 7/1/04; Renum. 7/1/18, 7/1/23)

Merced Superior Court

H. Notice of Settlement or Dismissal

If a case is settled or otherwise disposed of, the plaintiff must immediately file written notice of the settlement or other disposition with the Court and serve the notice on any arbitrator or other Court-connected ADR neutral involved in the case. If a hearing, conference or trial is imminent oral notice must be given to all of the above. The Court will impose sanctions for failure to provide it with timely notice of settlement.

A request for dismissal must be filed by Plaintiff within forty-five (45) days after the date of settlement unless the settlement agreement conditions dismissal on the satisfactory completion of terms that are not to be performed within forty-five (45) days of the settlement. If the settlement contains such terms, then the settlement must specify the date by which the dismissal is to be filed.

If plaintiff does not file a request for dismissal within forty-five (45) days after settlement or forty-five (45) days after the date set for dismissal, the Court will either: 1) dismiss the case; or 2) require Plaintiff or Plaintiff's counsel to appear and show cause why sanctions should not be ordered for failure to file the required request for dismissal. (Eff. 7/1/04; Renum. 7/1/18; 7/1/23)

I. Further Settlement Conference

To ensure that the parties have a meaningful opportunity to explore all avenues for settlement prior to trial, the Court may set the matter for a further settlement conference prior to the date set for trial or remove the case from the trial calendar and order the parties to obtain a new settlement conference and trial date. (Eff. 7/1/14; Renum. 1/1/16, 7/1/18; 1/1/19; 7/1/23)

RULE 3.7 PROCEDURES FOR HANDLING COMPLAINTS ABOUT COURT-PROGRAM MEDIATORS

A. Application

The rules in this chapter establish the Court's procedures for receiving, investigating, and resolving complaints about mediators in the Court's Mediation Program for general civil cases, as required by rule 3.868 of the California Rules of Court. Nothing in these rules should be interpreted in a manner inconsistent with rule 3.868 of the California Rules of Court or as limiting the Court's inherent or other authority, in its sole and absolute discretion, to determine who may be included on or removed from its list of mediators or who may be recommended, selected, appointed, or compensated as a mediator by the Court. These rules also do not limit the Court's authority to follow other procedures or take other actions to ensure the quality of mediators who serve in the Court's mediation program in contexts other than when addressing a complaint. The failure to follow a requirement or procedure in these rules will not invalidate any action taken by the Court in addressing a complaint. (Eff. 1/1/10; Rev. 1/1/13; Renum. 7/1/18)
