24CV-06552

Warner Pereira v. Judithann Longacre

Motion to Set Aside Default and Vacate Default Judgment

The unopposed motion to set aside the default entered against defendant, Judithann Longacre, on March 3, 2025, is GRANTED. The motion demonstrates mistake or inadvertence as required by Code of Civil Procedure section 473, subdivision (b), and a proposed answer has been lodged with the court. The motion to vacate the default judgment is denied on the grounds of mootness, as no judgment has yet been entered pursuant to the entry of default.

Defendant's answer, lodged August 4, 2025, is ordered filed.

25CV-01231

Luke Wedan v. Avalon Health Care Management, Inc., et al.

Motion to Compel Arbitration

Defendant's motion to compel arbitration is GRANTED. The weight of evidence establishes that the arbitration agreement was executed by Plaintiff himself, using an electronic signature, albeit on the line for agent pursuant to power attorney, rather than the alternative line for principal himself to sign. Since there is no dispute that Plaintiff provided an objective manifestation of his consent to arbitration, the court finds that Defendant has met its burden of establishing that an arbitration agreement exists.

Plaintiff's objections to evidence establishing that an arbitration agreement was signed using an electronic signature by Plaintiff pursuant to a standard procedure used by Defendant are OVERRULED. There has been no showing that Plaintiff has been prejudiced by the late submission of such evidence, and no request by Plaintiff to continue the hearing. This Court finds that Code of Civil Procedure § 1295 is inapplicable as there is no claim for negligence based on the provision of medical services. (See, e.g. Holland v. Silverscreen Healthcare, Inc. 2025 WL 2349863, at pp. 6-7; Supreme Court of California No. S285429, opinion issued Aug. 14, 2025.) This Court finds that Defendant has not waived the right to arbitrate pursuant to the arbitration agreement. Plaintiff has also failed to meet his burden of establishing that the arbitration agreement is either procedurally or substantively unconscionable.

Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Responses to (1) Special Interrogatories, (2) Requests for Production of Documents, (3) Requests for Admission, (4) Form Interrogatories.

Plaintiff's motion to compel responses to (1) special interrogatories, (2) requests for production of documents, (3) requests for admission, (4) form interrogatories is DENIED given the above order granting the motion to compel arbitration. This order is without prejudice to the plaintiff's right to raise any and all discovery issues with the arbitrator.

24CV-00040 Barclay's Bank Delaware v. Irene Garcia

Motion for Leave to Complete Discovery Proceedings

Parties who wish to appear remotely must contact the clerk of the court at (209) 725-4111 to seek permission and arrange for a remote appearance.

Defendant Irene Garcia's motion for leave to complete discovery proceedings pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 2024.050(a) is DROPPED from calendar for insufficient notice. The proof of service filed by defendant on August 25, 2025, indicates that defendant served notice of the motion by e-mail at 3:22 p.m. on Friday, August 22, 2025. Defendant did not obtain leave of court to set this motion on shortened time, therefore notice of motion must be provided as required by Code of Civil Procedure section 1005 and rule 3.1300 of the California Rules of Court.

Even if sufficient notice had been provided, the Court notes that defendant's motion is not accompanied by a meet and confer declaration under Section 2016.040 as required by Section 2024.050(a).

Motion for Order Compelling Discovery

Parties who wish to appear remotely must contact the clerk of the court at (209) 725-4111 to seek permission and arrange for a remote appearance.

Defendant Irene Garcia's motion for an order compelling discovery pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 2031.310 is DROPPED from calendar for insufficient notice. The proof of service filed by defendant on August 25, 2025, indicates that defendant served notice of the motion by e-mail at 3:22 p.m. on Friday, August 22, 2025. Defendant did not obtain leave of court to set this motion on shortened time, therefore notice of motion must be provided as required by Code of Civil Procedure section 1005 and rule 3.1300 of the California Rules of Court.

Even if sufficient notice had been provided, the Court notes there are procedural defects. A motion under Section 2031.310 is a motion to compel further responses to a demand for inspection of documents. Defendant has not provided either a separate statement (see rule 3.1345 of the California Rules of Court) or a concise outline of the discovery request and each response in dispute (see Section 2031.310(b)(3)). In addition, the motion is not accompanied by a meet and confer declaration under Section 2016.040 as required by Section 2031.310(b)(2).

Case No. Title / Description

24CV-00811 Marco Aguilar v. Dole Packaged Foods, LLC

Motion by Defendant Dole Packaged Foods LLC to (1) Disqualify Capstone Law APC as Counsel for Plaintiff, and (2) Dismiss PAGA Representative Action

The Motion by Defendant Dole Packaged Foods LLC to (1) Disqualify Capstone Law APC as Counsel for Plaintiff, and (2) Dismiss PAGA Representative Action is GRANTED.

This Court Grants All requests for judicial notice brought in connection with this motion and OVERRULES all evidentiary objections.

This Court finds that deposition testimony of highly credible, highly probative, and not directly contradicted or explained by the evidence submitted by Captone Law APC. Even if the evidence submitted by Capstone Law was viewed as credible, which it is not, the evidence submitted by Capstone Law APC unequivocable establishes that Marco Riveria Aguilar is willing and capable of making false statements under penalty for perjury, the only question is whether he lied during his deposition or lied in his sworn declaration. Based on the totality of circumstances and absence of corroborating evidence, this Court finds that Marco Riveria Aguilar was telling the truth during his deposition.

Given the unequivocable evidence that Marco Riveria Aguilar has in fact intentionally lied under oath, this Court finds that it is impossible for him to testify credibly on the issue of whether or not certain labor code violations occurred, especially given that his deposition testimony suggests that such violations may not have occurred. Thus, the weight of evidence establishes that the instant PAGA action is fictitious or sham such that this plaintiff has no valid cause of action, and therefore this court exercises its inherent authority to STRIKE the sham PAGE allegations, and orders this action DISMISSED. (Estrada v. Royalty Carpet Mills, Inc. (2024) 15 Cal.5th 582, 601-602.)

This Court further finds that the combined actions of Capstone Law APC in the Aguilera and the Aguilar cases reveals a systematic pattern of abuse that threatens the integrity of the judicial system and therefore the motion to disqualify Capstone Law APC as counsel in any PAGA claim brought against Defendant Dole Packaged Foods is GRANTED. (See People ex rel. Dep't of Corps. v. SpeeDee Oil Change Sys., Inc. (1999) 20 Cal.4th 1135, 1145.)

Accordingly, the Motion by Defendant Dole Packaged Foods LLC to (1) Disqualify Capstone Law APC as Counsel for Plaintiff, and (2) Dismiss PAGA Representative Action is GRANTED.
